

LEAVES ONE JAIL TO ENTER ANOTHER

Thief Released in Baltimore Faces Charge Here.

Frank Seymour, alias Frank Smith, twenty-five years old, one of the cleverest boarding-house thieves who ever operated in Washington, was released from the Maryland State Penitentiary at Baltimore yesterday, after serving a term of nearly a year and a half. His liberty was of short duration, for a detective was waiting to rearrest him on a charge of committing three robberies in Washington. Seymour served the eighteen months' sentence for a larceny committed in Baltimore. He was arrested in that city at the request of the Washington police, and while the Baltimore authorities had him working his "game" there, he assisted in the robberies of which Seymour is accused, in the penitentiary.

The police allege that on August 11, 1909, Seymour and his accomplice robbed three persons living in a boarding house at 1101 H street northwest. Instead of giving the names of George Schneider and William Rodgers, engaged a room at the house, but remained only one night. When they left it was discovered that the house had been ransacked. Margaret McDonald found her room had been entered and $28 in cash and a ring stolen. W. H. McComas missed a suit of clothes and other wearing apparel, valued at $5. W. C. Woods was also robbed of shoes, clothing, and jewelry, valued at $30. Detectives Pratt and Howell traced the thieves to Baltimore and the arrests followed.

Seymour is well known to the police. He says he at one time was a shoe-maker. He is unmarried and at the time of his arrest gave his address at 1216 Detroit avenue, Cleveland.

NO "SALOME" FOR BALTIMORE.

Revised Edition May Be Given, but Without Mary Garden.

Baltimore, Dec. 1.—"Salome" with Mary Garden in the star role will not be given in Baltimore, although the revised edition of the opera with some other stellar attraction is still hoped for by Dr. A. L. Dohme, chairman of the local opera committee, who financed the guarantee fund.

A message was received to-day from Bernard Ulrich, business manager of the Chicago Opera Company, in which he says that the company does not wish to be placed in the position of offending public taste, and it has therefore been decided to cut "Salome" out of the repertoire that had been arranged for this city.

WOMAN'S BODY IS FOUND.

After Four Days' Search, Mystery of Disappearance Is Cleared.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 1.—Ending a widespread search of four days and clearing up the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Mrs. Jeannette Brown, aged twenty-three, the pretty wife of H. B. Brown, a small merchant, the body of the woman was found in the basin of the city reservoir this afternoon by men who have been dragging the basin since Monday. The corpse was near the spot where the woman's hat was found floating on the surface Monday.

No further theories have been advanced as to her motive for suicide, and there are many who doubt that she ended her own life. It is pointed out that in climbing the high iron fence about the reservoir rim and the wire netting surrounding it, she would certainly have left some trace, but absolutely none was found.

Mrs. Bertie J. Garfield, of Norfolk, sister of the dead woman, to-day said she did not believe in the suicide theory. Friends of Mrs. Brown still talk of foul play, though absolutely no motive has been found for such a crime.

Capt. Edward Goodrich Dead.

Dunkirk, N. Y., Dec. 1.—A dispatch from Chicago announces the death of Capt. Edward Goodrich, formerly of Dunkirk, who died suddenly of heart disease at his home in that city. At the outbreak of the civil war, Capt. Goodrich enlisted in the Ninth New York Cavalry, in which regiment he served under Gen. Sheridan until it was mustered out at Washington. In 1875, he went to Chicago and engaged in the lumber business. Capt. Goodrich was a member of the Loyal Legion and was prominent in Grand Army circles. He was sixty-eight years old.

Another Case of Typhoid.

Annapolis, Dec. 1.—The twenty-fifth case of typhoid fever during the present series of illness was reported at the Naval Academy to-day, Midshipman Robert P. Luker, of Staunton, Ill., a member of the fourth class, being the patient.

Siam imported 708 bicycles in 1910 fiscal year (March 31), but only three were of American make. Great Britain sent 587.

FIRE DAMAGES CHURCH.

Loss of $1,000 at Grace Protestant Episcopal Edifice.

Fire in the basement of Grace Protestant Episcopal Church, Ninth and E streets southwest, yesterday morning, caused damage estimated at about $1,000. The loss is covered by insurance.

Originating near a gas meter in a corner, the flames spread rapidly, and for a time it seemed the edifice was doomed. Firemen confined the flames to the corner of the church, but much damage was done by water.

It is probable that the services will be conducted in the parish house until the damage is repaired.

ABERNATHY UNDER FIRE.

Marshal Is Called to Washington to Answer Charges.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 1.—John R. Abernathy, United States marshal, left to-day for Washington, D. C., called by the Department of Justice relative to charges which have recently been investigated here by Inspector Fishman, of that department.

It is said to-day he will tender his resignation to President Taft on his arrival. He was appointed by President Roosevelt because of his well-known stunts and old acquaintance with West, and later reappointed by him, having about two years yet to serve.

Abernathy's two small sons rode overland to New York to welcome Roosevelt home from Africa.

RETURNS TO OLD HOME.

Woman Found Wandering About Nearly Frozen Near Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Dec. 1.—Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, of Berwyn, Md., is under arrest and being held at the Henrico County jail, charged with trespassing on the property of A. A. Gerhardt, near this city. Mrs. Baker is the wife of John R. Baker, reputed to be a wealthy citizen of Berwyn, Md.

The Bakers were residents of Henrico County until two years ago, when they moved to Maryland, selling their Virginia property. Gerhardt, who bought the place, says the woman had wandered about the property nearly frozen two or three days, and had broken in the door of a cabin on the farm. He says she was under the impression that the place was still her home.

Gerhardt feared for the safety of himself and family, thinking the woman might set fire to some of the buildings. He called Special Officer W. H. Mahan, and the arrest was made.
